

Shri Venkaiah Naidu inaugurates “Saath Hai Viswaas Hai, Ho Raha Vikas Hai” Exhibition

Posted On: 07 JUN 2017 5:55PM by PIB Delhi

Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu Minister for Information & Broadcasting has said that the Government under the leadership of Prime Minister in the last 3 years had worked tirelessly towards the development agenda wherein various initiatives had been taken to transform the lives of people. The Government is committed to fulfill the aspirations of emerging New India which is hungry for development. A new movement - Making of Developed India (MODI) had started in the country that is resonating across all sections of society. The Minister stated this while inaugurating the “Saath Hai Viswaas Hai, Ho Raha Vikas Hai” Exhibition at Indira Niketan Park, Sarojini Nagar. Col. Rajyavardhan Rathore, Minister of State for I&B was also present on the occasion.

The Exhibition comprises of 90 panels which covers various themes such as Prosperous Farmers Prosperous Nation, Government for the People, of the People, by the People, Visionary Government - Securing India's Future, India's Rise in the Global Order, Harnessing Yuva Shakti for New India, Decisive & Bold Government, Empowering Gaon & Garib for New India, Empowering Women, Reform to Transform and Government that cares.

The Exhibitions organized by DAVP is being put up across state capitals for duration of 5-7 days which would showcase the achievements of the Government in the last 3 years in various sectors.

CP/GV

(Release ID: 1492133) Visitor Counter : 94

