As a part of the Government of India's new initiative 'Naya Bharath, Hum Kar Ke Rahenge: 2017-2022' the PMO has teamed up with the various Public Sector Undertakings to bring the younger generation into the forefront. As a part of it, Cochin Shipyard Limited, on behalf of the Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs and Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, DAVP is hosting an Exhibition cum Seminar on the topic; 'New India-We Resolve to Make' from 25 to 29 August 2017 at Jawaharlal Nehru International Stadium, Kaloor, Kochi. The inauguration of the exhibition-cum-seminars will be held at Jawaharlal Nehru International Stadium ground, Kaloor at 5 pm by Prof. K V Thomas MP. It will be followed by cultural programmes by the Song and Drama division of I & B Ministry.

Cochin Shipyard Limited is also conducting a lucky draw contest for the public. Five winners will be chosen daily for the five day exhibition and will have a once in a life time opportunity to be the guest of CSL for a day with a free tour of the prestigious institution and visit its indigenous aircraft carrier vessels and other prized vessels.

The fully digitised exhibition is open to public for free and will be an invigorating experience for both the academic and the general public. The programme also combines seminars and panel discussions engaging various dignitaries and experts from different walks of life, with the exhibition. The seminars will be channelled by several reputed colleges and schools of Kochi on differing topics dealing with the emerging social and political scenario of contemporary India.

The daily programme details are given as under.
