

PIB Headquarters

H.N. Iyer new Banking Ombudsman

Posted On: 07 MAR 2017 5:42PM by PIB Thiruvananthpuram

Shri H.N. Iyer, Chief General Manager, Reserve Bank of India has taken charge as Banking Ombudsman for Kerala, Union Territory of Lakshadweep and Mahe. Before assuming this charge, he was General Manager in the department of Non-Banking Regulation of the Reserve bank at the Central Office in Mumbai.

Shri. Iyer has over seven years of experience working in commercial banks in different capacities before joining the RBI. During his career spanning over two decades in the Reserve Bank of India he has served in various capacities in the areas which include commercial and co-operative bank supervision, supervision of non-bank finance companies, rural credit and deposit insurance. He was also the banks nominee on the board of the Jammu and Kashmir Bank Ltd for three years. Shri H.N. Iyer joined the Reserve Bank of India as a direct recruit officer in October 1993 and was elevated to his present position as Chief General Manager in January 2017. He is a Master in Business Administration (MBA) in Banking and Finance and a certified Associate of the Indian Institute of Bankers. He also holds a certificate in treasury and Risk Management from the Indian Institute of Banking and Finance (IIBF).

(Release ID: 1483830) Visitor Counter : 412

