Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi has extended his New Year greetings to the citizens across India who are celebrating the start of New Year. In a series of tweets the PM wished that may the year bring peace, joy and prosperity to everyone.

“People across India are celebrating the start of the new year. New year greetings to everyone. May the year bring peace, joy and prosperity.

नववर्ष और नवरात्रि की देशवासियों को कोटि-कोटि बधाई। नवसंवत्सर हम सभी के जीवन में समृद्धि,
खुशहाली और अच्छा स्वास्थ्य लेकर आए।

Sajibu Cheiraoba wishes to my sisters and brothers in Manipur. Have a cheerful and harmonious year ahead.

On the auspicious occasion of Navreh, my greetings to everyone celebrating. May the year ahead be characterised by positivity and good health.

Ugadi greetings to all those celebrating. May the coming year fulfil all your wishes and may there be happiness all around.

Cheti Chand greetings to the Sindhi community. May Lord Jhulelal bless us and the year ahead be a happy as well as memorable one.

Wishing the people of Maharashtra on the special occasion of Gudi Padwa. May the coming year bring happiness, good health and prosperity.”, the Prime Minister said.
