The Union Minister of Finance and Corporate Affairs, Shri Arun Jaitley said that India has become most favourable and attractive destination for Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) evidenced by the fact that it has become one of the largest recipient of FDI in the world. The Finance Minister, Shri Jaitley was delivering the Introductory Address at the Investors' Roundtable Meet in Singapore yesterday. The Investors Roundtable was jointly organized by the Ministry of Finance and the High Commission of India in Singapore. The Finance Minister, Shri Jaitley said that to provide further impetus to the economy, the present Government has implemented a slew of economy reforms one after the other including the roll-out of the Game Changing Tax Reform, Goods and Services Tax (GST) from 1st July, 2017; introduction of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (IBC) and the Re-Capitalization Package for the Public Sector Banks (PSBs) - which will help to redress the twin balance sheet problem and revive private investment. The Finance Minister also spoke about the major initiatives undertaken by the present Government including the crackdown against black money through demonetization and other follow-up measures; and major changes in the Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) Policy regime, with an aim to make it more liberal and investor friendly. He also highlighted the 'Ease of Doing Business' measures initiated by the present Government in last three years resulting in India jumping in World Bank's "Ease of Doing Business" Index from 146 in 2014 to 100 in October 2017.

Earlier in his Key Note Address at the Singapore Fintech Festival yesterday, the Union Finance Minister, Shri Arun Jaitley said that the three key structural reforms implemented by the present Government in recent years viz. Aadhar, Demonetisation and GST have brought transparency and efficiency in Governance and helped in transition from cash to less cash economy and from informal to formal economy. Shri Jaitley further said that demonetisation has also helped in bringing-out black money by giving identity to anonymous cash. The Finance Minister also spoke on India's growing economy; stable currency, liberalisation of Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) policies and India's attractiveness as a global destination for Start-ups among others. He also dwelt on how Aadhaar revolution coupled with Financial Inclusion and its potential applications in transferring of Pension, Scholarship and Government subsidies directly to the actual beneficiaries under Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT) Scheme is transforming the payment landscape in India. The Finance Minister Shri Jaitley also visited Singapore Expo, a global event organised by the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) attracting over 35,000 fintech participants, showcasing State of the Art developments in Fintech and engaging professionals and Policy Makers on insightful debates on fintech developments across the globe.
