International Counter Terrorism Seminar to be held tomorrow

Posted On: 07 FEB 2017 11:25AM by PIB Delhi

The Minister of State for Information and Broadcasting Col. Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore will be the Chief Guest at the 17th International Seminar on Counter Terrorism, being organised by National Security Guard, at Manesar, Haryana tomorrow.

The theme of the two-day seminar is synergizing the national and international Special Forces to meet challenges of terrorism and Improvised Explosive Devices (IED).

The seminar will focus on various challenges of terrorism, such as countering the growing IED menace, global terror threats and the need for international cooperation to fight the scourge collectively. During the event, a Counter Terrorism Expo is being organized to showcase the latest equipment in the field of counter terrorism.
