Tree Plantation Drive by Railway Women's Welfare Central Organisation (RWWCO)

Posted On: 07 JUL 2017 6:39PM by PIB Delhi

In view of Minister of Railways Shri Suresh Prabhakar Prabhu's continued efforts on Tree Plantation in railway areas, the Railway Women's Welfare Central Organisation (RWWCO) has undertaken Tree Plantation Drive on 6th July, 2017 at railway premises in New Delhi. Smt. Rashmi Mital, President/RWWCO & Executive Members of RWWCO planted various shady, flowering and fruit bearing trees in railway premises.

Railway Women's Welfare Central Organisation is the apex body of the chain of women's welfare organisations spread over all Indian Railways engaged in the task of welfare of railwaymen and their families through various need-based socio/welfare activities.

The organization started its activities in 1962 after Indo-China War, and while the primary concern of the Organisation is the welfare of Railway employees and their families, it has always risen to the call of the society and the nation- be it environmental awareness, family welfare drives, disturbances on the borders or the natural calamities. It is one of the fore-runner voluntary Organisations in the country today.
