Former President Shri Pranab Mukherjee has shared a letter from the Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, received on his last day in office as President of India. Shri Pranab Mukherjee said that the letter from the Prime Minister touched his heart.

Following is the Text of the Letter:

During your political journey and your presidency, you placed the wellbeing of the nation over everything else. You opened Rashtrapati Bhavan to initiatives and programmes that recognized innovation and the talent of India's youth.

You belong to a generation of leaders for whom politics was simply a means to selflessly give back to society. You stand as a great source of inspiration for the people of India. India will always be proud of you, a President who was a humble public servant and an exceptional leader.

Your legacy will continue to guide us. We will continue to draw strength from your democratic vision of taking everyone along, which you have developed over a long and illustrious public life. As you enter a new phase of your life, I convey my best wishes for your future endeavours.

Thank you once again for your support, encouragement, guidance and inspiration. Thank you for the very kind words you said about me at the farewell in Parliament a few days ago.

Rashtrapati Ji, it has been an honour to work with you, as your Prime Minister!

Jai Hind

Yours sincerely,

(Narendra Modi)

Shri Pranab Mukherjee
The President of India
