

MOU For a Project on “Conservation, Development & Maintenance of Purana Qila” Signed Among ASI, NCF AND NBCC

Posted On: 31 MAR 2017 6:46PM by PIB Delhi

Archaeological Survey of India (ASI), National Culture Fund (NCF) and NBCC (India) Limited, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) here for the ‘Conservation, development & maintenance of Purana Qila project’ at Purana Qila, New Delhi under NBCC’s CSR initiative. In the presence of Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Minister of State (I/C) for Culture and Tourism, the agreement was signed by Mr. Rakesh Singh Lal, Additional Director General(ASI), Mr. K.L.Dhingra, CEO, NCF and Mr. Rajendra Wanchoo, CGM, NBCC (India) Limited. Shri N. K. Sinha, Secretary, M/o Culture was present on the occasion.

The main aim of this MoU is the conservation, restoration, development of monument precinct, upkeep of monument and museum, development to ensure better presentation and conservation of the monument and development of various tourists related amenities and highlight the history, heritage value of the monument and it’s surrounding along with its context.

Under this agreement, NBCC (India) Limited agrees to support to the project of “Conservation, Development & Maintenance of Purana Qila” and will provide funds of up to Rs. 14.35 Crore for the next 5 years in stages starting from FY-2016-17.

The execution of the project shall be undertaken in 3 phases mentioned as under -

PHASE-I : Conservation, Restoration and Horticulture & Development Works

PHASE-II : Upgradation and extension of museum and Parking

PHASE-III : Excavation and Display

Sanjay Kumar/Culture/31.03.2017

(Release ID: 1486364) Visitor Counter : 65

