Indian Foreign Service Officer Trainees call on the Prime Minister

Posted On: 02 MAY 2017 5:45PM by PIB Ahmedabad

41 Officer Trainees of the 2016 Batch of the Indian Foreign Service called on the Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi today.

Sharing his thoughts, Prime Minister stressed on the need for the Foreign Service officers to be extremely well informed, and think in a global perspective. He urged the officer trainees to keep in touch with their batchmates from other services, in course of their career, so that they could always keep abreast of developments at home.

The Prime Minister said, that by and large, the world believes that India has a bright future, and is comfortable with India's rising stature.
