President's Message on The Eve OF Christmas

Posted On: 24 DEC 2017 2:53PM by PIB Delhi

The President of India, Shri Ram Nath Kovind has greeted fellow citizens on the eve of Christmas.

In a message the President said, "On the auspicious occasion of Christmas, I convey my warm greetings and good wishes to all fellow citizens, especially our Christian brothers and sisters in India and abroad.

May this day, marking the birth of Jesus, promote in us and our families the universal message of love, sacrifice and compassion. May it renew our society's sense of fraternity. And may it herald a season of peace and friendship across the world".
